

Disability Community Seminar Accessing the World through International Exchange

San Francisco
October 30, 2009

---

U.S. citizens and residents with disabilities and representatives of U.S. disability organizations are invited to attend this one-day seminar and luncheon as we discuss the 'Who, What, Where and Why' of international exchange for U.S. students, teachers, professionals and others with disabilities:

- Presenters with disabilities will share personal international exchange stories and talk about accommodation strategies for navigating abroad, what to bring, what to expect and more. Participants will receive practical tools and resources on using VR and keeping SSI benefits, while also learning about scholarships available for international exchange.
- Representatives of international exchange organizations will present about programs and scholarships, best practices and share from past exchange experiences.

When: Friday, Oct. 1, 2009, 9:30am - 4:00pm

Where: San Francisco, California

Cost: $40.00 (includes lunch). Scholarship for reduced rate available by request.

Wheelchair accessible

Disability-related accommodations such as ASL interpreters and alternative formats available upon request

For more information and registration, go to:

www.miusa.org/ncde/seminarsf

or

contact MIUSA at:

E-mail: clearinghouse@miusa.org

Tel/TTY: (541) 343-1284

This event is co-sponsored by Mobility International USA (MIUSA), the Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs of the U.S. Department of State, Bay Area Outreach and Recreation Program (BORP), City of San Francisco Mayor's Office on Disability, and the Disability Rights, Education and Defense Fund (DREDF)

Registration deadline: Oct. 16, 2009 - Space limited to 50 participants, so register early!