
Supporting teacher trainees with LD in transition from college to work

Brenda Liptz
David Yellin College of Education,
Jerusalem, Israel
K.U. Leuven, Belgium
July 2009

How can you be a teacher with such spelling mistakes?

Beethoven
Pistorius
Teachers and education
students with LD

- Disabled, impaired or over-able?
- Inhibiting or facilitating factors

Brenda Liptz bren58@gmail.com

2

Education students with LD –
sense-making, in their own words

- Lived experience –critical incidents
- Career decisions – subjective educational theory
- Difficulties and vulnerability
- Strengths and unique contributions – reframing
- Coping strategies, quality assurance – professional self-understanding
- Disclosure – micropolitical literacy

Brenda Liptz bren58@gmail.com

3

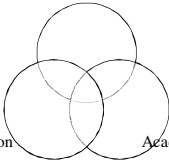

Education students with LD –
voices from the field

- Faculty reactions
- Colleagues' reactions
- Institutional reactions

Brenda Liptz brenE58@gmail.com 4

Dilemmas – education students with LD:
rights and responsibilities

Education students

Teacher education Academic / professional frameworks

Brenda Liptz brenE58@gmail.com 5

Education students with LD – where are we?

- Dealing with disclosure
- Providing support
- Maintaining standards

Brenda Liptz brenE58@gmail.com 6

Education students with LD

- Resources:

Brenda Liptz bren58@gmail.com

7