

DO-IT Prof & DO-IT Admin increased the knowledge & skills of postsecondary faculty & administrators to make them better prepared to include students with disabilities in courses & services.

DO-IT Prof team created & delivered six models of professional development for faculty & academic administrators.

U.S. Dept. of Education grant #P333A999042

DO-IT Prof Model 1: A 20-30 minute introduction to legal issues, accommodation strategies, & resources.

Model 2: A 1-2 hour presentation with focus on providing accommodations to students with a variety of disabilities.

Model 3: A tailored workshop for more in-depth training on specific topics.

DO-IT Prof Model 4: A televised instruction option using a series of videos delivered on public television & the Internet.

Model 5: An online distance learning "anytime-anywhere" course.

Model 6: Web-based instruction.

The Faculty Room
www.washington.edu/doi/Faculty/.

The DO-IT Admin team developed six models of professional development for student service providers & administrators to complement the six developed by the DO-IT Prof team.

U.S. Dept. of Education grant #P333A020044

Student services addressed in DO-IT Admin included admissions, registration, advising, career services, learning centers, libraries, distance learning programs, & computer centers.

Model 1: A 20-30 minute introduction to legal issues, universal design, accommodation strategies, & resources.

Model 2: A 1-2 hour presentation on legal issues, universal design & accommodations, systemic change, & resources.

Model 3: Tailored workshops for specific student service units.

Model 4: Televised instruction through a series of videos shown online, on site, & on public television

Model 5: A distance learning course delivered via email & available at

Model 6: Self-paced, web-based instruction

The Conference Room
www.washington.edu/doit/Conf/

The Board Room
www.washington.edu/doit/Board/
